Joe Cunningham is an individual and business insurance planning specialist who serves as a resource to Financial Advisors, Benefits Professionals, Attorney's, Property & Casualty and Commercial Insurance Agents and their clients in the design and implementation of numerous life, long-term care and disability insurance planning strategies. His experience in the areas of business and individual protection, most notably impaired risk and complex case design, make him a valuable partner to our team.

Educational Designations/Licenses

Joe holds his life and health insurance licenses as well as the Chartered Life Underwriter (CLU®) credential from The American College. Joe also holds FINRA Series 6 and 63 licenses and represents only "A" rated insurance companies with life insurance, long-term care, and disability product solutions.

Personal Statement

Joe and his wife Kyla reside in Exeter, NH with their two daughters Ellie and Noa. They enjoy traveling and spending time outdoors together. Being so close to the beach is a bonus! Joe is active in local basketball leagues and hopes to coach his kids various sports teams. His dedication as an insurance professional who always puts the needs of clients and agents he works with first and foremost is readily apparent to everyone he meets.
